Hey--I wanted to make sure you saw this email. There now just 11 days till Election Day, and we desperately need your help.

Dear NARAL Supporter,

The election is just 13 days away, and I'm seriously starting to panic.

Anti-choice Republicans are about to take over the Senate--and Mitch McConnell has already said that one of the very first things he'll do is pass a ban on abortion after 20 weeks.¹

The polls are close enough that we can still catch up, but we're running out of time. And if the election were held today, we'd probably lose.

Will you chip in to help stop the anti-choice Republican takeover of the Senate--and support all our work to defend choice?

Yes, I'll make a donation. We can't let anti-choice Republicans take over the Senate.

Take a look at how close this election is.

In Iowa, polls say the anti-choice candidate is ahead by 2.5 points.² In Colorado, it's 2 points.³ And in Kentucky, *the difference is just 1 point!*⁴

If we can win just those three races, we'll almost surely save the Senate. That means this entire election could be decided by less than 100,000 people.

But we don't have any more time to delay. We're pulling out all the stops to keep anti-choice Republicans from winning the Senate and passing legislation to ban abortion after 20 weeks. Can you chip in to help defend the right to choose?

Yes, I'll make a donation.

Thank you for helping to make choice real for all women,

Anti-choice Republicans are on the verge of winning the Senate and passing a ban on abortion after 20 weeks. We can still catch up, but we're running out of time. Can you make a donation today?
